Tata Communications Internet Access Service

Seamless Connectivity, Superior Performance: Empowering your network with flexibility, speed and support

In today's digital landscape, enterprises require robust and dependable connectivity to drive their operations effectively. Tata Communications Internet Access Service offers dedicated bandwidth, guaranteeing uninterrupted and secure high-speed data transmission critical for business' productivity and competitiveness. It ensures low latency and seamless integration of the network infrastructure which lays a strong foundation for growth and performance. Tata Communications is a global Tier-1 internet service provider. Our global coverage ensures proximity to critical content, cloud applications, and users, while at the same time our multiple and diverse paths for traffic guarantee reliable, always-on service for end-users.

Key Features

Supports speed up to 100Gbps

IPv4/IPv6 dual stack and DNS services

Fixed port and usage based billing option

Range of protocols including static & BGP

24x7x365 proactive customer support

DDoS protection and mitigation

DNS services

Managed CPE services

Backup port options

Advance Network and Reporting tools offer a birds eye view of the business, including near real-time reports and trends for improvement.

The search for Internet Leased line ends here

Global reach

Only service provider to have fully owned submarine cable system across the globe

Faster response time

High performance over self-owned Tier-1 domestic & international network to all the cloud providers

Ensure business agility

Flexible billing options including a self-service portal for ordering, service ticketing and monitoring service performance

Tata Communications Internet Access Service at a glance

6Tbps

of Domestic IP backbone

240+

PoPs globally in more than 40 countries

115+

PoPs in over 101 cities in India spanning across 24 states

200Tbps+

customer & interconnection capacity

Direct access to more than 70% of the leading content providers

Carries more than

35% of global internet traffic

For more information, visit us at www.tatacommunications.com

Contact us